On May 14, FPC honors

...all Mothers for Mother's Day

...three graduating seniors

...and two departing Neals

Sunday, May 14, will be a day of celebration for First Presbyterian Church.

Since it's the 2023 observance of Mother's Day, all mothers will be thanked for their year-long service to their families, this church and this community.

The day will also feature special recognition for the church's three graduating seniors: Emma Campbell, Ella Caruso and Vivian Howie. These special students will be introduced during worship and then honored at a reception following the service.

The graduating seniors will share the spotlight at the reception with former pastor Larry D. Neal and his wife, Judy, as they make plans to relocate in Fayetteville, Ga. Church members will have an opportunity to express appreciation to the Neals and extend best wishes during the reception.

Dr. Don McGarity, who will deliver the morning message, urges your attendance in worship on May 14th and at the reception to follow.

On May 14

The sound team is looking for more volunteers to be sound team members. We are looking for at least three people to add to our weekly schedule.
