

NOTES

To Our Dear Friends:

As the hands and feet of God, First Presbyterian Church met our every need when Don's unexpected death shook the very foundation of our small family.

Thank you for showing up...for holding our hands, crying with us and assuring us that, as a church family, you would see us through.

Thank you for praying for us. As difficult as our days were, your prayers for God's comfort sustained us and uplifted us.

The memorial service was perfect—thanks to so many of you. Special appreciation goes to Leah Metzger for the music, the Rev. Natasha Sudderth-Davis and the Rev. Larry D. Neal for officiating, and a host of others who made sure the church was straightened up after morning worship, the air conditioning was adequate and the sound system was under expert supervision.

With splendid organization, the women of our church welcomed family members and friends to a reception following. This lovely gesture made a huge impact on those who traveled to be with us. Thank you for showing them your hearts, for exhibiting the love that Christians have for each other, for welcoming them graciously and feeding them generously.

We are still devastated and still sad, but God's goodness has been evident every step of the way.

Thank you for serving Him and honoring us with your love, time, attention, casseroles, cards, texts, flowers, visits, memorial gifts and phone calls.

Even on our darkest days, we knew we were held close by God and blessed by your compassionate love.

We will be forever grateful.
